Calendar 2026

Our new calendar is on sale at Tapton Lock Visitor Centre and Hollingwood Hub or you can get it from our online shop by clicking here.

Christmas E-Cards

We have not made any physical Christmas Cards for the last three years because we sell very few nowadays. Instead, we have electronic cards. You can send the e-card to any number of people whilst at the same time making a donation to the Trust.

For full details, click here.

Big Give

Our Big Give Christmas Challenge 2025 will take place from 2nd to 9th December. Full details will be in the next E-Newsletter, but we are aiming to raise over £13,000 which will be doubled by the pledges already with Gift Aid to add. Please ask around now to see whether friends, family or local clubs or businesses would be willing to donate.

Afternoon Teas at Tapton

Please see the attached.

Tapton Lock Visitor Centre

Tapton Lock Visitor Centre is currently open every day but needs more volunteers. If you would like to help, please reply to this email.

Memorial in Killamarsh

On 28th November 1915, six young people drowned after falling through the ice whilst skating on the canal below St Giles Churchyard in Killamarsh, see Cuckoo Autumn 2017. After many years of trying, Killamarsh Heritage Society has finally got approval to put in place a memorial to these young people in the graveyard. The stone will be dedicated on Saturday 29th of November at 2.30 pm. All are welcome to attend.

Movement for good
